In exceptional circumstances we are prepared to be flexible about the closing date for applications. This will depend on the circumstances and requirements of individual students. Please feel free to contact us at Walsall College and we will be happy to discuss your application on the basis of your current test scores. The start dates and outcome very much depend on the student's ability, aptitude and application.

In order to make sufficient progress, students are expected to attend every lesson, complete all homework on time and participate in self- study outside class including extensive reading and listening.

You will need to buy 3 course books at approximately £15 per book and a dictionary at approximately £15. You will also need to provide your own pens and paper, etc.
