How do we collect information from you?

Hubspot

Hubspot is a third-party data processor, used by Walsall College to manage data provided through the forms on our website, hosted landing pages, event registration/attendance, emails, website and advert interaction, social media enquiries and course applications.

All data we collect via Hubspot is collated into the College Customer Relationship Management (CRM) system which is held within Hubspot and is used by Walsall College to improve communication and customer service.

Hubspot also integrates with Eventbrite (see Event Management section), Jotform (see Enquiry – Collection and Management section), Sakari (see Text Messages section) and Surveykiwi (see Surveys section) and allows data collected within each of these to be transferred and stored within HubSpot. We use a provider called Zapier to assist with transferring of data from/to HubSpot for internal purposes within college.

For more information on the HubSpot Privacy Policy please click here.

Student Enquiry – We will ask you some basic information relating to your enquiry such as name, address, age, level of study, subject of interest, when you are looking to join us and how you heard about the college. You may also be asked to provide details of your current school / college and/or employment status to help us to handle your enquiry. This information is processed using Hubspot and/or Jotform.

Employer Enquiry – We will ask you to provide some basic information: name, job title and contact details as well as details about the company you are enquiring on behalf of. This information is processed using Hubspot and/or Jotform.

General Enquiries – We will ask you to provide your contact details and information relating to your enquiry so it can be dealt with accordingly. This information is processed using Hubspot and/or Jotform.

For all of the above purposes we rely on the legal basis of ‘public task’ or necessary for a contract to enable us to use your personal data to respond to your enquiries

In addition, at the time of requesting this information your Consent to process the data for marketing purposes will be sought. When we ask for your Consent we will provide specific details of how we wish to use your data. Data collected for marketing purposes will be held within Hubspot and / or Jotform:

Emails that are sent to Walsall College may also be stored within Hubspot these will be stored for two years after the last communication was made.

Enquiry – Collection and Management

When you make an enquiry to Walsall College, we ask you for some information so that we can provide you with the best service tailored to you. Enquiries can be made using our website, when you engage with us at events, send an email or when you speak to any of our staff. This data is also to help us refine our marketing channels. Personal data from all enquiries are stored within Hubspot. Enquiries submitted online are either collected through a Hubspot or Jotform (a third party tool) form and all data will be held within Hubspot.
